Later From Europe.

The Asia, with a week's later dates from Europe, arrived at New York yesterday. A synopsis of her news will be found under the Telegraph head. They are not much political importance, but commercially favorable. Breadstuffs were active at rather better rates, and the demand improving. Political affairs are much complicated and it is still an even question whether War or Peace is to be the condition of the Continent during the current year.

Meeting of the Legislature.

The Legislature meets at Madison to-morrow, and the usual preliminary caucuses, for the selection of officers, will, doubtless, be held this evening. Assuming that there will be no delay in the organization of either House, the Governor's Message will be sent in to-morrow, or, at furthest on Thursday, and will be laid before the readers of the Sentinel, at the earliest possible moment. We shall receive daily telegraphic reports and a Daily Correspondence from Madison, during the session, so that our readers may make sure of being fully and promptly advised as to all that transpires at the State Capital. The session bids fair to be of unusual interest and, we trust, of moderate length and creditable character.

Our State University.

We commend to the notice of our readers a communication in this morning's paper from Chancellor Lathrop of our State University. It was sent us for publication a fortnight since, but was accidentally mislaid. The facts stated, and the suggestions made, merit the attention of the People and of the Legislature. We believe that the best interests of popular education in our State will be materially promoted by sustaining and enlarging our State University. With but limited facilities it has already accomplished a good deal, and as its means of usefulness increase it will, we are persuaded, take high rank among the Educational Institutions of the Republic.

The Senatorial Question.—We yield to the earnest solicitations of esteemed friends at Racine in making room for the communication of Mr. Lyon, on the question of Judge Doolittle's eligibility to the United States Senate. Our own view of the constitutional question has already been expressed, and we are content to leave the matter, where the Constitution has placed it, in the hands of the Legislature.

The Disturbances at the South.

The News of Sunday sums up a brief article in reference to the late insurrectionary movements, real or fancied, among the slaves of the South, with the following oracular dictum:

The murders by the slaves, and the killing of the slaves, is the work of this excitement, and the Fremonters alone are answerable for it.

The "excitement" here spoken of is that which attended the recent Presidential campaign; and which the News attributes to the Republicans exclusively. Both the premises and the conclusions of our neighbour are palpably false. The Republicans could not, by possibility, have "excited" the Slaves to insurrection, seeing that every utterance, or publication of Republican doctrines was forcibly suppressed at the South. The "excitement" under which the Slaves labored was the work of the Sham Democracy and their Know-Nothing allies.

They it was, who at all their public meetings and in all their public newspapers, throughout the Southern States, kept iterating and re-iterating the statement that the aim and intent of the Republican party was to abolish Slavery wherever it existed, and that the success of Col. Fremont would be the deathblow of the "peculiar institution." It was by these false and foolish declarations that they stimulated the sectional feeling of the South, but at the same time impressed the slaves with the belief that the day of their emancipation was close at hand. For the "excitement" thus produced, and the bloody consequences which have followed the disappointment of the hopes thus imprudently kindled, the democratic leaders, orators and editors of the Slavery proganda are directly and solely responsible.

Settled.—The New York Tribune of the 9th inst., has the following item in its money market:

La Crosse was 72½, an improvement of 8½ per cent from the lowest point yesterday. The difficulties to which we alluded yesterday have, as we anticipated, been amicably arranged, and the legal proceedings suspended.

We have reason to believe that the difficulties referred to have been amicably settled.

Penalty of Hospitality to Mr. Sumner.—The following from The Blair County (Pa.,) Whig is more interesting than at first sight appears:

"Post Office Appointment.—John Troxel has been appointed Postmaster at Cresson, Pa., in place of Dr. R. M. S. Jackson."

Dr. Jackson, who is thus displaced, is the physician with whom Mr. Sumner stayed during the month of August on the Alleghany Mountains. Thus early he is called to pay the penalty of his hospitality.

The Milwaukee Sentinel.

The prospectus of this excellent—except so far as Sheboygan and its interests are concerned—news-paper, will be found in another column.—The Sentinel is really one of the most enterprising sheets in the West; always "up to time" in giving the news from abroad by telegraph, and at home generally, or remotely, to advance the interests of Milwaukee. From it the reader can thoroughly post himself in reference to all the railroad and other improvements of the State, save only those pertaining to Sheboygan. To these, within the last six or eight months, it has been most perseveringly oblivious. With but an exception or two, do we recollect to have seen in its columns, during that time, any allusion to our Railroad or City improvements, while in reference to Manitowoc on the North, Racine and Kenosha on the South, and indeed, every other portion of the State the most remotely tributary, even in prospect, to its locality, has its Argus eyes led it to become even "the snapper-up of inconsiderable trifles." This peculiarity is looked upon and talked of as a significant fact in this section, and our citizens, like Capt. Cuttle, seem disposed to "make a note of it."—Sheboygan Times.

While so many of our cotemporaries are saying kindly words of us, it may seem out of reason to select the above for special remark, and we do it only for the sake of disavowing any thought of overlooking our Sheboygan friends. We surely have no reason for so doing, and always glance through the columns of the Times and Journal to see what is going on there, and we are sure that there is no items of importance which they have given, which have not been noticed by us. We would like to have our cotemporaries understand that it is, and has been, our aim to make the Sentinel not only a Milwaukee paper, but a Wisconsin paper, and to give our large number of subscribers and readers out of the State a knowledge of what is going on in every part of it. If our space would allow, we should transfer in full to our columns every notice of progress; but as it is, we devote such space to this department of news as we can, without any distinction as to locality.

A Model Legislature.—The News, in the course of some eulogistic remarks touching the members elect of the next Legislature, says:

While in point of members, we are largely in the minority, we can proudly point to the democratic delegation in the legislature, and challenge a comparison with any delegation that ever represented any party in any State of the Union. It contains talent, experience and sterling integrity, far above what is ordinarily found in such bodies.

Inasmuch as the Republican members elect are certainly equal in "talent, experience, and sterling integrity" to their opponents, and have greatly the advantage in numbers, it follows—assuming the premises of the News to be correct—that the people of Wisconsin are blessed this year with a Legislature beyond compare. As this is an unaccustomed luxury in our State, the people will no doubt fully appreciate it; and the more to if this model Legislature proves its quality by its works.

For the Sentinel.

The Wisconsin State University.

Messrs. Editors:—I observe, in a copy of your paper, of recent date, a statement of the patronage of the State University, for the year 1856. Your figures admit of some correction, and perhaps it is worth while to make the statement strictly accurate.

One hundred and sixty-nine students have been in connexion with the University during the year just closed; of which number, sixty-four are residents of Madison, sixty-nine of other portions of Wisconsin, seven of Illinois, six of New York, five of Ohio, three of Pennsylvania, three of Virginia, three of Minnesota, two of Missouri, two of Canada West, and one, each, of Maine, Indiana, Michigan, Kentucky, and California. Of those resident in Madison, a large portion belong to families who have removed to this capital with a distinct view to the advantages of University culture.

It has fallen to the lot of no other public institution of learning with which I have been acquainted, in the course of a long professional life, to encounter the same amount of misapprehension, jealousy, and misrepresentation, as have lain in the way of our beginnings here. Friends, even, have faltered; but the University has pursued the even tenor of its way, and is now realizing, in its marked success, the wisdom of a devoted and silent discharge of duty, leaving outside issues to the solution of time and experience.

The financial management of the institution has been out of the reach of disparagement—An original land endowment, the whole property of the University, appraised at $130,000, has been expanded into a productive fund of some $300,000, with a certainty, under prudent management, of further increase.

It has been a strange misconception, in the public mind, that this whole endowment has been available to the institution, from the beginning. In point of fact, up to the present year 1856, the actual income of the University has been insufficient, after payment of interest on loans and contigent expenses, to maintain an ordinary College Faculty. The plan of the Institution has been, of necessity, developed gradually, as means came into the hands of the Regents to meet the educational wants of the community. It is intended that the organization shall be strictly departmental, and that students may be admitted to the instructions of such departments as may be adapted to their purposes in life, without the necessity of pursuing the whole course of study. What has been already done in that direction may be understood by examining the following schedule of departments in actual operation, to wit:

1. Professor of Ethics, Civil Polity, and Political Economy, J. H. Lathrop, L. L. D.
2. Professor of Mental Philosophy, Logic, Rhetoric, and English Literature, Daniel Read, L. L. D.
3. Professor of Mathematics and Natural Philosophy, John W. Sterling, A. M.
4. Professor of Chemistry and Natural History, Ezra S. Carr, M. D.
5 Professor of Ancient Languages and Literature, O. M. Conover, A. M.
6. Professor of Modern Languages and Literature, J. P. Fuchs, M. D.
7. Professor of Didactics, (the Normal Department,) Daniel Read, L. L. D.
8. Professor of Agricultural Chemistry, and Applications of Science to the Arts, E S Carr, M. D.

The Professors, in the second, third, and fifth Departments, are assisted by Madison Evans, A. B., Tutor.

The recent enlargement of the productive fund, by the further sale of lands, will justify the Board in organizing two additional Departments—one of Civil Engineering, and one of Physics and Astronomy, at their annual meeting in January.

For the accommodation of these several Departments, and the reception of the necessary aids of instruction, library, apparatus, and scientific collections, it is in contemplation to proceed to the erection of the main edifice, in the spring. The Astronomical Observatory will, probably, be included in this structure.

The Degree of A. B. will be conferred of those who pursue a full course in the Classical Languages, and pass the usual examination of candidates for that Degree. The Degree of Bachelor of Science will be conferred on those who pursue an equivalent course, exclusive of the classics, and pass the requisite examinations. Appropriate degrees will be awarded in the several departments on examination, to those who accomplish the course of study in each.

Students who reside in the University buildings, will provide furniture for their own rooms. The rooms are warmed by furnaces; board and washing may be obtained in the institution at moderate charges. The next term will open on the 7th of January, 1857.

I beg pardon, Messrs. Editors, for the length of this communication. If you deem it, or any portion of it, of interest to your readers, it is at your disposal. Yours truly,

J. H. LATHROP.

University, Dec. 26, 1856.

For the Daily Sentinel.

The Senatorial Question.

Racine, Jan. 12th, 1857.

Messrs. Editors:—Since the appearance of the article in the Sentinel on the constitutional eligibility of Judges, during the term for which they were elected to the Senate of the United States, in which it is asserted, in effect, that it was the opinion of Chief Justice Whiton, two years ago, that they are ineligible to the Senatorial office during the term for which they were elected Judges. I have taken the trouble to make such inquiries as would elicit the real truth in relation to the opinion entertained by Judge Whiton on this subject. And sir, I am authorized to say that you are entirely mistaken in your statement of the opinion of Judge W.—This is a question which cannot possibly be raised before our Supreme Court, and therefore it is perfectly proper for the Judges of that Court to express their opinions upon it freely, if they choose to do so. Judge Whiton has always, and at all times, when speaking upon this subject, declared an opinion directly the opposite to that which the Sentinel attributes to him, and asserts that the case is too plain and palpable to admit of a doubt in his mind. Judge Smith too, has always been of the same opinion, and Judge Cole who, at first on looking at the language of the State Constitution alone, had some doubts, upon consideration of the United States Constitution, (which is the paramount law on this subject,) in connection with our own constitution, fully concurs in opinion with Justices Whiton and Smith.

Why Sir, when the Federal Constitution declares that a Senator shall be thirty years of age, is it not preposterous to say that the State Constitution may impose an additional disability, and say that no man shall be eligible until he is sixty? Or when it says that he shall have been a citizen for nine years, that the State Constitution say that he must be a native-born citizen, to be eligible? Would there be any validity or binding obligation in that provision of a State Constitution which should assume to enact that no farmer, or mechanic, or editor, or lawyer, should be eligible to the Senatorial office? Of course not. Neither can a State Constitution enact that no Judge shall be eligible. Neither is there any implied obligation in the oath of the Judge or of the members of the Legislature. They all swear to support the Constitution of the United States, as well as the State Constitution. And when they are called upon to perform an act required by the Federal Constitution, and over which the Federal Constitution is Supreme (as it is in regard to the qualifications of Senators,) they are to be governed by that Constitution alone. While urging these considerations, I do not admit for a moment, that there is any clashing between our own and the United States Constitution upon this subject, but claim that the disability in our Constitution extends only to officers elected under it—and not to officers elected under the U. S. Constitution.

This question is res adjudicata. The Senate of the United States is the only tribunal that has any jurisdiction over it, and in the case of Judge Trumbull they settled the question. The Illinois Constitution expressly extends the disability to United States officers. Trumbull's term as Judge had expired when he was elected Senator. The Governor withheld his certificate of election.—The Senate were politically opposed to him by a majority of three to one. And yet he was admitted by a large majority, to his seat. The masterly argument of Wm. H. Seward in favor of his eligibility is unanswerable.

One other remark. As regards those subjects within the jurisdiction of the Federal Government, the constitution of a State has the same relation to the Federal Constitution, that a statute law has to the State Constitution. In the La Fayette County Seat case, our Supreme Court held a law void, which required a person to reside ten days in the town before he became a qualified voter on the question of the County Seat.—This decision was made upon the ground that the Constitution only requires that the person shall be a resident of the town at the time he offers to vote, in order to make him a legal voter, and the law was declared void, in that it imposed a disability unknown to the Constitution. Thus endorsing the principle which admitted Judge Trumbull to his seat in the Senate, and which justified the action of the Legislature of Illinois in electing him to that station. What Republican would desire to see the opposite principle established—and this distinguished statesman turned out of the Senate, where his services are so valuable to the cause of Freedom? Surely there are none such.

Permit me to add that the Republicans of this County are warmly in favor of the election of Judge Doolittle to the United States Senate, not simply because he is one of our own citizens, but because we know the man, and believe that he is every way qualified to fill that high station with honor to himself and to the satisfaction of the Republicans of the State and nation. And my object in penning this communication is to endeavor to remove the most serious objection I have heard urged against his election,—an objection which I believe to be entirely without foundation in principle. All that we ask is an even chance in the friendly Senatorial contest, and then whether the choice should fall upon Judge Doolittle, or upon some other of the distinguished gentlemen whose names have been presented by their friends as candidates, we shall be entirely satisfied, and none more so than Judge Doolittle himself.

I will only add that in all my antecedents I have been a Whig—while the antecedents of Judge D. have been Democratic. But he stands in that respect upon precisely the same ground with Col. Fremont himself, with Gov. Hamlin, of Maine, with Gov. Bissell and Senator Trumbull, of Illinois, and a host of others, whose names are "towers of strength," in the Republican cause, and whose services and co-operation in this State have aided so materially in making it a truly "Democratic Republican State." Let fair even handed justice be extended to Judge Doolittle, as well as to every other member of our party, without regard to antecedents, and we shall have no difficulty in maintaining our proud ascendency in this State. Very Respectfully,

Yours,

WM. P. LYON.

New Hampshire Republican Convention.

Concord, N. H., Jan. 8.

The State Convention to nominate a candidate for Governor, composed of all opposed to this administration, assembled at Phœnix Hall, in this city, this morning. After the usual preliminary business, the convention adjourned until afternoon. In the afternoon Ralph Metcalfe declined being a candidate, and the Convention took an informal ballot, resulting in no choice. On the third ballot, Wm. Haile, of Hinsdale, received 301 of the 465 votes and was declared the nominee of the Convention. Three cheers were then given for him and three more for Hon. Ichabod Goodwin of Portsmouth, who received 205 votes. The Convention was large and very enthusiastic.

Steam mill at Sheboygan.—Mr. G. Benson has just completed a steam flouring mill at Sheboygan, at a cost of $20,000, with five run of stone, capable of grinding 50 or 60 bushels of wheat per hour.

By Mil. & Horicon R. R.—2,974 bu wheat, 69 hides, 3 bale pelts, 18 barrels tallow, 1,696 pounds sundries.

Received by Railroad during the past week:

49,825 bus wheat, 2,990 bbls flour, 1,554 bus corn, 796 do oats, 1,867 do barley, 616 do grass seed, 86 do grass seed, 993 hogs, 35 sheep, 445 bus rye, 125 deer, 1,867 hides, 290 do pelts, 12 bales wool, 12 tons pig iron and sundries.

Receipts of produce have increased during the last week, but the Rail Roads are still somewhat obstructed by ice and snow and unable to do all the business that offers. The country roads are now in fine order and sleighing capital in all directions. Our Market, for the past week, has been active and buoyant. Wheat and Barley have advanced and are readily taken at our quotations. Pork is going up steadily and there seems to be an impression that the demand will outrun the supply. Beef is also in request at higher rates.

General business is good in our city, but the money market continues stringent and currency is scarce. The weather is superb for all winter work, though at the North the deep snow interferes with Lumbering operations.

We quote prices about as follows:

Flour—Receipts from the country of about 2,500 bbls during the week. We quote superfine at 4@4,50; country extra $5@5,50; city do 5,50@6 00.

Wheat—The receipts reach about 60,000 bus for the week, and we note an active demand at 3@4c higher than the previous week. We quote spring at 90@93, and winter at 95@103, according to quality.

Barley—receipts limited—a prime article brings 1,35@1,45—inferior slow of sale at 1,20@1,25.

Rye—nominally 65@70—few sales reported, and no receipts.

Oats—active demand at 35@40

Corn—better; we quote at 52@59 for shelled.

Potatoes—wanted at 65@75.

Eggs—in demand at 20c.

Bull's Head Cattle Yard.

Milwaukee Relief Association.

MILWAUKEE, Jan 12, h.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Our present Relief Association, though it has as yet hardly commenced operations, has gladdened the hearts of many with its opportune aid, and would have been enabled to do much more but for the criminal selfishness and indolence of many of our citizens. Think you, who are wrapped up in your costly furs, and sitting by your warm firesides, that there is no need of immediate action?

Come with me and I will show you more than one who has stolen, purposely to get food and a home in the jail, and such a home! Come with me and I will show you a wretched shanty, through whose floor and walls can be seen the cold snow, and which is hardly a check to the piercing winter blasts. It is occupied by a still more wretched couple,—the husband lies drunk upon the floor, drunk with the proceeds of the money which a mistaken charity gave him. Once he was sober and respected, and made a drunkard through sorrow and want of employment. The wife sits shivering over a scanty fire, made with the chips picked up in the streets with her only hand the other is withered and the arm is festered with corruption. "But," says one, "the Association last winter aided abandoned women; I'll not give my money to any such society." 'Tis true, upon one of the coldest days of the past winter, one our kind-hearted visitors provided food and clothing for a wretched couple in a little shanty upon the beach, who but for his aid would have fr zen to death in a few hours. The man was dead drunk—the woman sick and unable to stir, lay in the corner upon the floor, partly covered with rags. What brought her there? What made her an outcast? 'Twas the pangs of hunger and the wickedness of a fiend in human shape, who yet walks our streets, respected for his wealth!

Will you object to aid the children with frozen feet, because the drunken mother has pawned (at a store that is to-day dealing out its poison,) their shoes for Satan's drink? Will you object to help the Catholic and the Irishman, because those of their own faith or country are too heartless to keep them from starving? Come, and I will show you the room occupied by the family of an American, once in affluence, which contains only food enough for to-day, and that supplied by charity.

You, fathers and mothers, to whom your children are more precious than gold—would you rescue a little child from the clutches of a drunken father, and worse than a drunken step-mother? You need not shock your nerves with a sight of the wretchedness within, you can hear the cries of the little one long ere you reach the place, as she is beaten by her inhuman parents.

But I may be thought presuming in saying so much, I could not say less. Many long and cold days, weeks, and months, have the poor yet to struggle with their poverty ere a genial summer's sun with its attendant blessings, appears. Meanwhile, let us "do good as we have opportunity."

The Association is now provided with a sufficient number of excellent Visitors, and all who give to the Society may rest assured that their contributions will be worthily bestowed.

Yours, truly,
HERBERT REED,
Sec'y Mil. Relief Association.

Lectures Ahead.

The Young Men's Christian Association have engaged Rev. Dr. THOMPSON, of Buffalo, to lecture on the 22d inst., and Rev. W. G. HOWARD, of Chicago, on the 30th inst.—These eminent divines will be fully appreciated by the Milwaukee public, who show their estimation of a good lecturer, by their attendance to Dr. BOYNTON's lectures.

Dr. THOMPSON is one of the most eloquent divines in the country, and Mr. HOWARD is no less favorably spoken of.

Rev. Mr. MILBURN will be here sometime next month, of whom we shall give the public notice at a future time.

DR. BOYNTON'S LECTURE LAST EVENING.—We stepped into Young's Hall last evening—that is, as far as we could get—(which was about three feet from the outside of the door), to see some of the Doctor's experiments. We have only space to say that the Hall was prowded to overflowing—gallery, aisles, and even the stage, were one mass of human beings. All seemed to be completely absorbed with what the Doctor was saying, as near as we could judge from the outside. Had we a chance to hear, we should doubtless have been as well pleased as any.

PRINTERS' FESTIVAL.—The celebration of FRANKLIN'S Birthday, the Printers' Holiday, on Friday evening next, will be a brilliant affair. The Committee have so far completed their arrangements as to be able to promise all who attend a very delightful time. The supper comes off at 8 o'clock and the Ball will commence between 10 and 11. We hope to see a goodly array of the Craft gathered together on this auspicious occasion. Will not the various Railroad Companies make a reduction of the fare in favor of those attending from a distance?

MILWAUKEE LIGHT GUARD.—The following Non-Commissioned Officers were elected last evening, at the meeting of the Light Guard:

First Sergeant—G. E. DINGHAM.
Second do—R. H. HEWITT.
Third do—H. L. PALMER.
Fourth do—W. B. CHANDLER.
Fifth do—A. F. MASON.
First Corporal—THOS. JOHNSON.
Second do—E. N. HURD.
Third do—C. P. HEWITT.
Fourth do—E. H. MARTIN.
Treasurer—C. P. FOOTE.
Secretary—W. L. HIN DALE.

DR. BOYNTON.—The lecture this evening will be upon the formation of Coal—how it was deposited, with proofs that it was formed from vegetable matter—how [illegible] surface of the earth, changed into coal—how [illegible] one of Dr. Boynton's most interesting lectures. These entertainments seem to increase in attraction on every succeeding evening.

"THERE'S A GOOD TIME A COMING BOYS.—Number One have decided to give their annual Ball, on the 22nd inst, at the new hall in the Albany. This may be looked upon as one of the grandest affairs of the season. Number one is composed of "a number one" tip-top lot of fellows, and whatever they take in hand, will be "done up brown."

ORATORIO OF THE CREATION.—Our music-loving readers are reminded that the Oratorio of the Creation will be performed by the Musical Society at Young's Hall to-morrow evening, for the benefit of Mr. BALATKA. We cannot doubt that the Hall on this occasion will be crowded with an appreciative audience.

☞ Charles Gibney, somewhat notorious, in a small way, in the police annals of this city, a leading politician among his fellow-hackmen, and of marked prominence in an ovation which inaugurated the present municipal administration, was unanimously elected by the vote of twelve men in the Circuit Court of Milwaukee on Thursday last, to become one of the State Prison Inspectors of Wisconsin, his department being the inspection of a single cell, in terior nine. He was convicted of a burglary committed in Milwaukee during the State Fair. His term of office is 2 years and 8 months.—Chicago Dem Press.

Gibney has only met the fate that attends Chicago thieves when they visit Milwaukee. Our Police always catch them, and our juries invariably convict them;—if it takes two trials to do it.

☞ WELD & BALDWIN are doing a good business in Real Estate. They sold on Saturday:

2 Lots in Sherman's Addition for	$ 800
80 acres land in Walworth County for	1,200
240 acres in Bad Ax Co for	1,900
Total sales on Saturday	$3 900

We advise those who want to sell as well as those who are purchasing Real Estate to call on them, at No 18 Wisconsin street.

The Sentinel thinks Gibney could be discharged under a habeas corpus, on the ground that he can be but "once put in jeopardy" for the same offence. The constructions of the phrase "once in jeopardy," which is held by our highest Courts, is that a man is in jeopardy when he undergoes a legal trial.—Wisconsin.

It is the business of the State to conduct the trial of an accused in a legal manner, and when they fail on their first attempt, they cannot constitutionally again "put him in jeopardy" to correct their error. The counsel of McDonald, who was tried and convicted of murder, in our Circuit Court, and to whom a new trial was awarded, was liberated on a habeas corpus, so the counsel informs us, upon the precise point. Milwaukee Relief Association.

MILWAUKEE, Jan. 12, h.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Our present Relief Association, though it has as yet hardly commenced operations, has gladdened the hearts of many with its opportune aid, and would have been enabled to do much more but for the criminal selfishness and indolence of many of our citizens. Think you, who are wrapped up in your costly furs, and sitting by your warm firesides, that there is no need of immediate action?

Come with me and I will show you one who has stolen, purposely to get food and a home in the jail, and such a home! Come with me and I will show you a wretched shanty, through whose floor and walls can be seen the cold snow, and which is hardly a check to the piercing winter blasts. It is occupied by a still more wretched couple,—the husband lies drunk upon the floor, drunk with the proceeds of the money which a mistaken charity gave him. Once he was sober and respected, employed in a profession; now he is degraded, and compelled to make a drunkard through sorrow and want of employment. The wife sits shivering over a scanty fire, made with the chips picked up in the street with her only hand the other is withered and the arm is festered with corruption. "But," says one, "the Association last winter aided abandoned women; I'll not give my money to any such society." 'Tis true, upon one of the coldest days of the past winter, one our kind-hearted visitors provided fuel and clothing for a wretched couple in a little shanty upon the beach, who but for his aid would have fr sen to death in a few hours. The man was dead drunk—the woman sick and unable to stir, lay in the corner upon the floor, partly covered with rags. What brought her there? What made her an outcast? 'Twas the pangs of hunger and the wickedness of a fiend in human shape, who yet walks our streets, respected for his wealth!

Will you object to aid the children with frozen feet, because the drunken mother has pawned (at a store that is to-day dealing out its poison,) their shoes for Satan's drink? Will you object to help the Catholic and the Irishman, because those of their own faith or country are too heartless to keep them from starving? Come and I will show you the room occupied by the family of an American, once in affluence, which contains only food enough for to-day, and that supplied by charity.

You, fathers and mothers, to whom your children are more precious than gold—would you rescue a little child from the clutches of a drunken father, and worse than a drunken step-mother? You need not shock your nerves with a sight of the wretchedness within, you can hear the cries of the little one long ere you reach the place, as she is beaten by her inhuman parents.

But I may be thought presuming in saying so much, I could not say less. Many long and cold days, weeks, and months, have the poor yet to struggle with their poverty ere a genial summer's sun with its attendant blessings, appears. Meanwhile, let us "do good as we have opportunity."

The Association is now provided with a sufficient number of excellent Visitors, and all who give to the Society may rest assured that their contributions will be worthily bestowed.

Yours, truly,
HERBERT REED,
Secty Mil. Relief Association.

Lectures Abroad.

The Young Men's Christian Association have engaged Rev. Dr. THOMPSON, of Buffalo, to lecture on the 22d inst., and Rev. W. G. HOWARD, of Chicago, on the 30th inst.—These eminent divines will be fully appreciated by the Milwaukee public, who show their estimation of a good lecturer, by their attendance to Dr. BOYNTON's lectures.

Dr. THOMPSON is one of the most eloquent divines in the country, and Mr. HOWARD is no less favorably spoken of.

Rev. Mr. MILBURN will be here sometime next month, of whom we shall give the public notice at a future time.

DR. BOYNTON'S LECTURE LAST EVENING.—We stepped into Young's Hall last evening—that is, as far as we could get—(which was about three feet from the out side of the door), to see some of the Doctor's experiments. We have only space to say that the Hall was crowded to overflowing—gallery, aisles, and even the stage, were one mass of human beings. All seemed to be completely absorbed with what the Doctor was saying, as near as we could judge from the outside. Had we a chance to hear, we should doubtless have been as well pleased as any.

PRINTERS' FESTIVAL.—The celebration of FRANKLIN'S Birthday, the Printers' Holiday, on Friday evening next, will be a brilliant affair. The Committee have so far completed their arrangements as to be able to promise all who attend a very delightful time. The supper comes off at 8 o'clock and the Ball will commence between 10 and 11. We hope to see a goodly array of the Craft gathered together on this auspicious occasion. Will not the various Railroad Companies make a reduction of the fare in favor of those attending from a distance?

MILWAUKEE LIGHT GUARD.—The following Non-Commissioned Officers were elected last evening, at the meeting of the Light Guard:

First Sergeant—G. F. DINGHAM.
Second do—R. H. HEWIT.
Third do—H. L. PALMER.
Fourth do—W. S. CHANDLER.
Fifth do—A. F. MASON.
First Corporal—THOS. JOHNSON.
Second do—E. N. BURR.
Third do—C. P. HEWITT.
Fourth do—E. H. MARTIN.
Treasurer—C. P. FOOTE.
Secretary—W. L. HIN DALE.

DR. BOYNTON.—The lecture this evening will be upon the formation of Coal—how it was deposited, with proofs that it was formed from vegetable matter—how changed into coal—how raised to the surface of the earth. This is said to be one of Dr. Boynton's most interesting lectures. These entertainments seem to increase in attraction on every succeeding evening.

"THERE'S A GOOD TIME A COMING BOYS.—Number One have decided to give their annual Ball, on the 22nd inst, at the new hall in the Albany. This may be looked upon as one of the grandest affairs of the season. Number one is composed of "a number one" tip-top lot of fellows, and whatever they take in hand, will be "done up brown."

ORATORIO OF THE CREATION.—Our music-loving readers are reminded that the Oratorio of the Creation will be performed by the Musical Society at Young's Hall to-morrow evening, for the benefit of Mr. BALATKA. We cannot doubt that the Hall on this occasion will be crowded with an appreciative audience.

☞ Charles Gibney, somewhat notorious, in a small way, in the police annals of this city, a leading politician among his fellow-boatmen, and of marked prominence in an ovation which inaugurated the present municipal administration, was unanimously elected by the vote of twelve men in the Circuit Court of Milwaukee on Thursday last, to become one of the State Prison Inspectors of Wisconsin, his department being the inspection of a single cell. Interior ed. w. He was convicted of a burglary committed in Milwaukee during the State Fair. His term of office is 2 years and 6 months.—Chicago Dem. Press.

Gibney has only met the fate that attends Chicago thieves when they visit Milwaukee. Our Police always catch them, and our juries invariably convict them—if it takes two trials to do it.

☞ WELD & BALDWIN are doing a good business in Real Estate. They sold on Saturday:

2 Lots in Sherman's Addition for	$ 800
80 acres land in Walworth County for	1,200
240 acres in Bad Ax Co for	1,900
Total sales on Saturday	$3 900

We advise those who want to sell as well as those who are purchasing Real Estate to call on them, at No 18 Wisconsin street.

The Sentinel thinks Gibney could be discharged under a habeas corpus, on the ground that he can be but "once put in jeopardy" for the same offence. The construction of the phrase "once in jeopardy," which is held by our highest Courts, is that a man is in jeopardy when he undergoes a legal trial.—Wisconsin.

It is the business of the State to conduct the trial of an accused in a legal manner, and when they fail on their first attempt, they cannot constitutionally again "put him in jeopardy" to correct their error. The counsel of McDonald, who was tried and convicted of murder, in our Circuit Court, and to whom a new trial was awarded, was liberated on a habeas corpus, so the counsel informs us, upon this precise point. REPORTER.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.—The following Officers were chosen last evening, at the Annual Meeting of the Milwaukee Fire Department, to serve for the ensuing year:

President—H. MOORE.
Vice President—JOHN LOWTHER.
Secretary—HENRY MIDDLETON.
Treasurer—CHAS. FREUNER.
Collector—C. REISDAHL.

AMERICAN ALMANAC FOR 1857.—We are indebted to STRICKLAND & Co. for a copy of this very valuable publication. The present number is the 25th of the series and abounds in carefully digested and reliable Astronomical, Political, Statistical and general information.—It is a standard work and deserves the liberal patronage of the public.

LECTURE THIS EVENING.—Rev. Mr. MCCREADIE will deliver a lecture this evening at the Spring Street M. E. Church, at 7 o'clock. Subject, the Roman Catholic Church.

☞ The following list of letters deposited in the Milwaukee Post Office, is detained for prepayment of postage, Jan. 13, 1857:

Hall William W., Richmond, Wis.
Lusk J. W. P. Stoughton, Wis.
Wallace G. A., Jefferson, Wis.
